DOG TAX LAW

UPHELD BY APPELLATE COURT.

The constitutionality of the "dog tax law" enacted by the General Assembly of 1906 was upheld this morning by the Court of Appeal, Judge Barker writing the opinion. Chief Justice O'Rear, Judges Nunn and Carroll dissent. The case at bar is that of W. Glore, Sheriff, against Womack, on appeal from the Carter Circuit Court.

After disposing of the objection to the law that it violates section 51 of the Constitution is its title, the court holds that it is not a violation of sections 171, 172 or 174. It holds that the law was intended for police regulation and not a revenue statute. Declaring that dogs are appropriate subjects of regulation under the police power of the State, the court says, this "is established by an overwhelming weight of judicial authority, and unquestionably it is entirely within the power of the Legislature to prohibit the ownership of dogs at all. We do not think it can be doubted that if it is competent for the Legislature to prohibit the ownership of dogs, or to prohibit them running at large, it is also competent to impose any other regulation which in its wisdom is best adapted to promote the sheep industry.

HARMONY PREVAILED.

The Lexington convention last week was one of the most harmonious gatherings ever assembled. Everybody was willing and ready to let the past be the past and join hands with each other in an united effort to regain that which was lost, and to do with increased energy, ex-Gov. Beckham, who no doubt thinks he has as great a grievance as any other Democrat could have, declares for harmony and pleads for united efforts in the fight for Democracy, and his speech delivered at the convention we copy here in full:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: It is indeed a great pleasure to me to again face an audience of Kentucky Democrats. It is a greater pleasure to see such a magnificent gathering of representative Democrats of this State, and to see such unbounded enthusiasm among them. It speaks well for the future. I join in with the utterances of other distinguished gentlemen who have spoken from this platform in urging upon the Democrats of Kentucky that it is upon this occasion, in the great fight of the year, if you have not been so in the past, you will at least be harmonious and united for the great battle of 1908.

My friends, an injustice has been done me if anybody has been led to believe that I sought for myself any favor at the hands of this convention. Believing, as some of my friends did, that my candidacy for temporary chairman might be of some service to the interests of the Democratic party, not as a reflection upon the distinguished gentleman who occupies that place; believing that they might want to beat some element which was seeking the control of the Democratic party in this State, they asked me to let my name be used as a candidate for that position, and as soon as I came here and found out that delegates believed that these honors should be distributed, I cheerfully and quickly withdrew from any such contest. I am not one of those Democrats who need any office or any honor in the gift of the party to make me support my party nominee.

The morning papers or at least some of them, announced that Beckham and his friends had been beaten. My friends, that may be true, but never could I be beaten so hard as to be driven out of the Democratic party. I would not imitate the example of others in the time of defeat within the ranks of the Democratic party, by sulking or bolting the nominee of that party. A Democratic convention composed of the best blood, the best brains of Kentucky citizenship can never beat me or beat my friends so that when the election time comes we will not walk up to the polls with earnestness and with zeal and record our votes in favor of the party nominees. My friends, the Republican party in Kentucky has never yet won a victory upon its own merits.

Upon each occasion when it has been successful it has been due to the treachery and defection of Democrats. Surely the people of Kentucky have had enough of that. Nothing shall come from my lips during this campaign; nothing shall be done by me during the proceedings of this convention that would throw the slightest obstacle in the way of a united Democracy or in the way of the triumphant election of our splendid leader, William J. Bryan.

There is nothing that I seek for myself. The Democratic party of Kentucky has done enough for me. It has done, it may be, for me more than I deserved, and all that I ask of a Democratic convention, all that I ask of my Democratic brethren in Kentucky, is the privilege of a private citizen of rendering my humble services to the influence of Democracy and to the support of the party. Let us have harmony, let us send delegates to your National Convention instructed to vote for William J. Bryan. Let there be no question about that. But, my friends I say not in a spirit of criticism of any one; I say in the most generous spirit, that I welcome most cordially back into the party those who have not stood with us in the years gone by.

Twelve years ago in these very Chautauqua grounds about this time of the year a Democratic convention was held and delegates were sent to Chicago and I went there with them, and witnessed that nomination of W. J. Bryan. I was his friend and admirer then. I stood by him in that great fight, and I believe now as do most intelligent Democrats, that if it had not been for the corrupting power of enormous sums of money he would have been unquestionably elected President in that year. In each of his races I have been his friend and his admirer. Though twice he went down in defeat, I was among the first to reach him and whisper in his ear words of encouragement as to the future. And with a united and triumphant Democracy, I believe that in next November the people will give him that which is his due by reason of his splendid patriotism and his magnificent attainments, the highest office within the gift of the American people.

Let your deliberations, therefore be wise and conservative; let no man say anything or do anything to break the harmony that seems to exist upon this occasion. Let us all join hands together, no matter what may have been our differences in the past so that Kentucky, by every tradition, by reason of its citizenship, its manhood, and its womanhood, a Democratic State, shall be restored to the Democratic column in next November.

Now, my friends, I believe, that I can no longer trespass upon your time. The committee which you have named should meet as soon as possible and deliberate upon their work, that the convention may organize and do its work, I say, therefore, I cannot longer delay you and interfere with the work of these committees. I want to thank you for the courteous treatment that you have accorded me. I know of no way to reciprocate, except in loyal service to the principles of our party and in an earnest support of its nominees. I thank you.

Powers and Howard have been pardoned and so far as the law is concerned, are free men from the heinous crime for which they have been held prisoners for the last eight years.

BRYAN already has 25 more instructed votes than necessary to nominate. Twenty-five more electoral votes next November, than necessary for a choice, will sound lots better.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican National Convention was called to order in Chicago at noon Tuesday and Temporary Chairman Burrows delivered his keynote address. Aside from the demonstrations when President Roosevelt's name was mentioned there were few evidences of enthusiasm. An effort by the Ohio delegation to start a demonstration for Secretary Taft evoked only a few scattering yells from outside delegations and spectators. After the presentation of names for the various committees the convention adjourned to meet again Wednesday at noon.

The Committee on Credentials and Resolutions held animated sessions Tuesday night, the former passing on contests and the latter hearing arguments over various planks of the platform.

Steam-roller methods continued to prevail when the contests were taken up by the Committee on Credentials. The Kentucky contests, after two hours of argument were quickly settled in favor of the Taft delegates. The vote on the First district contest was 41 to 4 in favor of the Taft men, and this was a fair index to the results generally.

The question of a nominee for the vice presidency is still up in the air. The only pronounced feature of Tuesday's conference was an apparent strengthening of the boom for Gov. Cummins, of Iowa. This was due to meetings of the Iowa delegation in the interest of harmony, and these meetings are said to have developed the fact that only three men on the delegation were opposed to the plan to name an Iowa as the candidate for second place.

The injunction plank in the platform caused long debates. Senator Long of Kansas, one of the members of the Subcommittee on Resolutions, said the plank would declare against summary action by the courts, without recommending anything that would lessen the dignity and prerogatives of the tribunals as established by long practice.

The absence of Senator-elect W. O. Bradley in the Kentucky delegation at the opening of the convention caused comment among the National leaders. Senator Bradley has been a prominent figure at National conventions for years and was generally at the head of the Kentucky delegation.

Mrs. Lucy A. Clark, of Utah, the only woman delegate to the convention, defined her position on woman's suffrage clearly. She has the backing of her delegation for the injection of a plank in the party platform calling for the National enfranchisement of women.

LIVINGSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Gerome Adams and son Helton were visiting relatives and friends in Corbin last week.—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lemonds and little daughter Elizabeth were in Louisville last week.—Carter Dugger has returned after a few days spent in Louisville.—C. H. Hanson, manager of the Livingston Lumber Co. has returned after being absent for some months and informs us that their mill will resume operation about July 1st, which we are pleased to hear.—Well the Mt. Vernon Ball Team came down Monday and threshed our boys badly. Our boys could not interest them. The game was called in the 7th. inning on account of score keeper E. S. Albright becoming weary in marking up scores for the Mt. Vernon boys they having made 31 runs and our boys only 2. This is even games as our boys beat them two weeks ago. So lets have the deciding game boys and then scalp them proper.—Miss Emma Pennington was in Mt. Vernon visiting Tuesday.—Miss Grace Wilson, niece of Mrs. J. E. Woodall left Wednesday for Los Angeles Cal. where she will enter school.

Miss Lucy Lee Mahan the young Lady Evangelist and her father Mr. Lee Mahan took supper with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wright at the Eight Gables Monday. Miss Mahan will go from London to Louisville the first of the week and has promised to stop over and preach at the Christian church one night on her way to Louisville.—Mrs. Eberlin and Mrs. Pollard of London were guests of Miss Lida Cook Monday and Tuesday.—Mrs. H. C. Rice is repainting her cottages on High street which adds considerably to their improvements.

L. M. Westerfield was in Louisville first of the week.—The Clark Circus which was billed for this place Friday 12th did not materialize on account of the exorbitant license which our town board exacted of them which we are told was $25.00 which looks to the public was done to freeze them out which they were successful in doing claiming as their reason for so doing that it takes all the money out of town. Don't be selfish boys and want it all because you have the authority to grind your axes upon the public's grindstone. Don't abuse that authority by wearing out the grindstone. Bearing in remembrance that you were elected by the majority of the people to make ordinances relative to the best interest of the majority and not to your own individual selves and if it is your intention to freeze the nuisances, as you call them, out we suggest that you begin at home and put the ice to them and I am sure you will have not our dissenting voice against your actions in freezing others out. But lets treat the public with the courtesies due it and not be censured by the public as discriminating.

Mrs. J. B. Eberlin and Mrs. Earnest Pollard, of London, were down to attend the funeral of Mrs. Graves. Mrs. Lee Mahan and daughter, Miss Lucy Lee, the Evangelist, also of London, and Mr. and Mrs. Hardin, of Farristown, were here upon the same mission.

That grim reaper, death, visited our city Sunday evening and at 2:30 o'clock with that all-devouring eye, cut the little thread of life which launched into eternity the spirit of that noble and devout Christian lady, Mrs. W. E. Graves (nee Chesnut), who was born Dec. 10th 1853, and who was led to the marriage altar April 6th 1870; and to this union there were born eight children, six boys and two girls, who with their father, one sister and one brother, are left to mourn the loss of a true and faithful wife, a kind and loving mother and a devoted sister. And to those bereaved sons, daughters, husband, brother and sister we would say, we know it is heart-rendering to give up the one whom you loved so well; but, oh! what a sweet consolation it is to know that she is relieved of all pain and suffering and has only left you here for a little while and has gone on before to take up her abode in that mansion prepared for all who live as this good sister lived and die as she died. She was a member of the Christian church and ever lived a consistent Christian life. We extend to all of the bereaved relatives our heart-felt sympathy and admonish them to live so upon this earth that when they come to cross the dark river of death, that they may be able to say, "It is finished I have fought the good fight and I am now ready to go and join that sainted mother in that mansion above where all is beauty and all is love. The funeral services which were conducted by her cousin, Miss Lucy Lee Mahan, were as sweet and as appropriate words of consolation as ever fell from mortal lips after which the remains were laid to rest in the Gresham burying grounds to await that bright and gladsome resurrection morn.

How to Cure Constipation

Few people altogether escape a disorder of the bowels. You may catch cold, over-eat, over-drink, worry too much, not exercise enough or do a hundred and one other things that result in constipation or costiveness. When the trouble comes it is well to know what to do for it. In the opinion of thousands there is no better cure for constipation than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which anyone can obtain for 50 cents or $1 at a drug store. We all have constipation occasionally, and the sensible thing to do is to have a bottle of this remedy always in the house. You take it at night on retiring, for example, and when you wake up in the morning at your usual hour it produces its results. Your stomach instantly becomes lighter, your head clearer, your eyes brighter, you feel active and spry once again, your appetite has returned and you are ready to work with enthusiasm and vigor. All this may not have taken more than a dose or two, at a cost not to exceed two or three cents. Can you afford to feel bad when you can feel good for so little?

Dr. Wilson Brown, of Metropolis, Ill., has no hesitancy in saying that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the greatest of all laxatives and he frankly admits to his patients that if they used it when the stomach, liver or bowels got out of order they would have less need of him. It is without doubt the best cure for occasional or chronic constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, jaundice, sour stomach, lazy liver, flatulency, diarrhea, and similar digestive ills in old or young. It is a thousand times better than salts or purgative waters, not only but sure, is pleasant to the taste, does not gripe, and cures permanently.

Go to your druggist and get a 50 cent or $1 bottle and see if our claims are not justified.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is made to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

R. L. McLENNON, S. R. C.

No home is complete without the presence of a child. No heart is lonely that is full of father and mother love. To watch the growth of a child and see it develop, day by day, is the greatest pleasure accorded to mortals. This pleasure has just fallen to the lot of Congressman and Mrs. Don C. Edwards, of London who are rejoicing at the arrival of a bright and handsome baby boy at their home, born the 15th. instant and christened Don C. Jr.

Assistant Cashier A. B. Furnish, spent Tuesday and Wednesday on his farm near Pongo, in the Southern part of the county. He tells of a most thrilling experience which he had while descending one of the slight slopes leading down from his most valuable and beautiful blue grass meadow, (which elevation is only about 93 1/2 degrees), the front wheels of his buggy struck a small washout which we are told by others is not more than three or four feet deep, and caused the buggy to completely change ends, going over the top of the horse, resting up-side-down, with horse's head toward buggy. Remarkable indeed that such an accident should occur with such little provocation, but still more remarkable that horse, buggy and driver escaped uninjured.

It is remarkable how some people, who want the world to think they are strictly alright, and in some cases are reliable except with newspapers will try to avoid paying their newspaper accounts. A thousand excuses are offered why they should not pay the bill; some say they did not get the paper, yet we know they received every issue and would make a special trip to the postoffice on paper day to get it; others refuse to take paper out of office thinking that will furnish excuse for refusal to pay, up the unpaid subscription when they are in arrears for two or three years, and others are kind enough to write a postal saying "stop my paper, don't want it any longer" but never say anything about the unpaid subscription. Should we publish a list of those who use such tactics, there would be many disappointments. The editor of a newspaper has to live as well as other people, it costs money and big money to get out a paper and live the merchant when he has sold his goods and waited a reasonable length of time, we need and want what is due us.

The demand for houses here is increasing daily. Some buildings are being erected but the demand is beyond the supply. Fifty or more houses will be needed as soon as the works begin operation at Sparda, the new crushing plant, where 125 to 150 men will be employed within the next sixty days.

Vernon home switchboard at this place and services is being given to all telephone stations on its lines and connections in Kentucky, northern and southern states including the cities of New York, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Little Rock, New Orleans, Jacksonville, Richmond, Washington City and intermediate points. Mr. W. H. Hasty, known as Col Hasty, received some very serious injuries Tuesday from the effects of which his recovery is somewhat doubtful. Col. Hasty who is getting well up in years, was riding down a very steep grade when his horse fell, throwing him to the ground and the horse rolling over him. One arm was broken, the other seriously mashed and several bruises about the body was the result.

Master Jake Williams, of Somerset, who is here visiting relatives, because of a sudden illness which came upon him, was the occasion of a considerable excitement Tuesday morning. Soon after he had eaten his breakfast, he went to a small cherry tree, just back of the Williams residence, climbed it and was eating cherries. Soon his aunt Mrs. Fannie Adams stepped out and seeing him lying on the ground, rushed to him, and to her great surprise found him speechless, and apparently in a very serious condition. He was carried to the house and Dr. A. G. Lovell hurriedly summoned when it was soon discovered that he had only fainted. In less than an hour Jake had recovered sufficiently to tell the story of how it happened, stating that while he was in the tree gathering cherries, he turned blind and fell out. He was soon alright and out on the streets going as if nothing had happened.

Caleb Powers, who was pardoned Saturday by Gov. Willson, returned to Barbourville Monday. He was greeted by a big crowd of citizens headed with a band. Powers made a speech at the courthouse, during which he said the blood of no man was on his hand. He said he had no apology to make for what he had done at Frankfort and that $50,000 had been spent in his fight for freedom.

Taft was nominated for President on first ballot.

Members of the railroad commissions of Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois met in Chicago June 12, decided to form a permanent organization and discussed measures for abrogating four considerable evils in railroad conditions in the States named. The dishonesty of railroad conductors, trespassing on railroad rights of way, accidents at grade crossings and confusing varieties of switch signals were among the topics considered. Committees were appointed to make special studies of each of these subjects.

The discussion on the pocketing of fares by conductors brought out the opinion that this evil has largely increased since the passage of the two-cent fare laws. It was declared that because these laws forbid the collection of a greater amount than two cents a mile, thus doing away with "conductors' rates," that many passengers do not buy tickets before boarding trains. The commissioners were of the opinion that the only correction for the evil is the passage of laws allowing collection of greater fares than two cents from passengers who do not purchase tickets.

This Percheron Stallion will make the season of 1908 at the Adams livery stable. He was imported from France in September 1907 and has as fine blood as can be bred into a horse by the French Government, as will be shown by his pedigree. Aside from his pedigree he is as good an individual as there is in the State. He is coal black, fine style and action and weighs twenty-three hundred pounds.

PEDIGREE:—Folded April 15th 1904. Bred by M. Brounart, commune of Berd'huis, Canton of Nocco, Department of Orne. Sired by Courmesnil 48500, dam Rosalie 47823, she by Lavoisier 40513. 2nd dam Saus Soucil 34864, she by Petite Caporal 14786. 3rd dam Louise 29546, she by Adorator 14079. 4th dam Petite 10475, she by Favori 12874. 5th dam Petite belonging to M. I invite the people to come and see this horse before breeding elsewhere. If you like the horse I shall appreciate any mares sent to him, and am sure none will regret sending after the colt is folded.

SIDI will make the present season at the above named stable at $20 to insure a living colt. Money due if mare is traded after being bred. All care will be taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

Nature has provided the stomach with certain natural fluids known as the digestive juices, and it is through these juices that the food we eat is acted upon in such a way as to produce the rich, red blood that flows through the veins of our body and thereby makes us strong, healthy and robust, and it is the weakening of these digestive juices that destroys health. It is our own fault if we destroy our own health, and yet it is so easy for any one to put the stomach out of order. When you need to take something take it promptly, but take something you know is reliable—something like Kodol for dyspepsia and indigestion. Kodol is pleasant to take, it is reliable and is guaranteed to give relief. It is sold by Chas. C. Davis.

EVERY MAN HIS OWN DOCTOR.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in the family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation. They sell for 25 cents a bottle.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whoopingcough. Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles. Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin. One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by Chas. C. Davis.

PLATFORM GOSSIP

It Is Said That National Republican Pronouncement Has Already Been Prepared.

NOW UP TO THE CONVENTION

With the Exception of Minor Details Which Are Left for the Committee, Platform Is in Hand, Awaiting Convention's Formal Ratification.

That the full text of the platform which will be adopted at the Chicago convention and on which the Republican party will stand during the next campaign has been completed with the exception of a few details, which will be left for the committee on resolutions to insert, is the opinion of many who are in the confidence of the Republican leaders. The work has been done by Hon. Wade Ellis, attorney general of Ohio, the draftsman of the recent Ohio state platform; Senator Hopkins, who will be the chairman of the committee on resolutions; Senator Long of Kansas, and a few others including the president and Secretary Taft, who have been freely consulted. The policies of President Roosevelt will be indorsed unequivocally, and this indorsement will be the central idea of the document. These policies will be set forth as the embodiment of the principles of the Republican party, whose achievements will be lauded as at all times wise and beneficent. The Republican party's record as the party of protection and sound money, as the party of progress and good principles, as the party that gave freedom to Cuba and lifted the yoke from the necks of the people of the Philippines and from Porto Rico, will be upheld for admiration and made the subject of much praise, and the voting public will be asked to continue to patronize the political craft that has carried it across so many streams.

Specifically speaking, more attention has been given by the platform makers to the tariff than any other subject. There will be an unequivocal declaration for revision; but the disposition is to leave the working out of details to the ingenuity of congress. Next to the tariff the financial plank has received most careful attention, but the enactment of the emergency currency law just before the close of the recent session of congress has rendered the preparation of this plank much simpler than it would have been if there had been no such legislation. Congress will be congratulated on the Aldrich-Vreeland measure as being in the interest of sound finance and as calculated to protect the business world against possible panics in the near future and at the same time provide for a permanent improvement of our currency system through the recommendations which it is anticipated will be made by the commission appointed under the new law.

The Republican administration will also be complimented on the passage during the Fifty-ninth congress of the railroad rate law. The president will also be given much credit for recent legislation looking to the preservation of the forests, the conservation of the public domain in the interest of the nitre country and the reclamation of the arid lands of the West. The convention will place itself on record as avowing such an amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law as will enable the railroads to enter into reasonable traffic agreements without taking the risk of prosecution in the criminal courts. In this connection there will be a pronouncement in favor of national control as against national ownership. "Organize will be taken of the demands of labor to the extent of recommending such legislation as will insure labor organizations against snap judgment by the courts in the issuance of injunctions without due notice or necessary hearing. There will be a trust resolution along the lines of that embraced in the platform of 1900. Our management of affairs in the Philippines will be extolled. As usual the platform will declare for the protection of the civil liberties of the negro race. There will be a strong declaration in favor of the continued improvement of the navy. There will be a word in favor of the maintenance of the army on its present basis, but no recommendation for its enlargement. A liberal pension policy for the future will be advocated.

MAY FORCE A CRISIS

Officers of Two States Discuss Night Rider Situation.

Adjutant General Critchfield of Ohio went from Ripley to Berlin, Ky., where he held a conference with Adjutant General Rogers Williams, of Kentucky and the officers of the two states may force a crisis in the night rider situation. The confession of a young farmer which was obtained by Deputy State Fire Marshal Ambrose, is known to embrace the names of five Kentuckians who were implicated in the burning of Boudes ferry last month. The Ohio troops have failed in their efforts to arrest these men on the fire marshal's subpoenas, and the conference of Generals Critchfield and Williams is expected to result in the arrest of the accused men and their extradition.

The Kentucky authorities have informed the Ohio officers that they are willing to co-operate in their efforts to bring the night riders to justice.
